"Education is the manifestation of the perfection already in man "
Swamy Vivekanda

Few words about me .....

The inspiring words of Swamy Vivekanda , followed by YESPEESON enterprise has initiated the birth of me; SP Fort College of Nursing since 2011. I am focusing the finest value system to equip my students to address the challenges to an ever drifting world .I knew nursing care is something that acts as the bed rock of any health care system. I am making a generation who could take care of future with a commitment to deliver the best capacity to undertake any challenges and a smile that let you feel the goodness of life.

I am situated in the outskirt of the capital city of Kerala without any interference of the city and very near to the Holy temple of Sree Padmanabha Swami, the guardian spirit the God Almighty. I am easy to access by road , rail and even air. I am proud to say that I have well-structured infrastructure and qualified omniscient teachers polished by a versatile genius, Principal Prof.N.G.Vijaylekshmi. My students never been afraid in the ocean of knowledge as I supply more than 3000 books with very good library facilities. I make sure a calm and quite ambience for learning my children and I am happy to enjoy the tumult of my students in the evening when they are making fun with various outdoor activities. Infact each evening my prayer to God Almighty is to bless with showers of prosperity for my future generations.

To achieve these prospective view, I could get support from my pioneer; SP Fort Hospital, first ISO certified in south Kerala. This Hospital was conceived and established by Sri. S.Pottivelu, with his Philanthropic commitment and indelible contributions to the society in the year 1997. This is also one of the reputed hospital, providing quality products and services which is available in the modern health care industries including Hyperbaric oxygen therapy for unhealed diabetic foot ulcers is the new venture in the Trivandrum city itself !

SP Fort hospital is well known for Thoracic and Orthopedic surgeries , which is known to be complex and complicated is available in very few Hospital in Kerala .I am sure that my students become a competent in the world as they received expert guidance from medical, nursing and other department from my parent institute will make them twinkling stars in field of nursing as they received a proficient experience from my parent institution.

It's my vision and mission.....

VISION

The College urges the students to search for new horizon of Knowledge and scientific ways to discover the real needs of the humanity through research study and extension.

MISSION

The Institution aims to prepare students for the pressing demands of today and tomorrow, keeping in mind the need to shape and mould a provisionally competent nursing generation loyal to the highest ideals of nursing profession.

Eminent personalities says .....

Dr.P.Ashokan
(MD&CEO)

It is my great pleasure to extend heart-felt felicitations on the inaugural issue of "Thoolika" the Bi-Annual newsletter of SP Fort College of Nursing. The newsletter aims to bring out salient activities of the college through the year. This I am sure will encourage students to come out with their creative thinking and hone their writing skills. Inclusion of articles related to modern treatment procedures in health care sector will help students stay abreast with the latest advancements and help them in their pursuit for global career prospects.

My best wishes to the staff and the editorial team for their efforts in bringing out this maiden venture.

Prof.N.G.Vijayalekshmi
